Summer Lunch Program Returns to Heights Libraries

By Maggie Kinney, Special Projects Manager

Summertime can mean hunger for some youth in our community, who no longer have access to free meals at school. That’s why we are thrilled to be serving these children and teens once again by hosting the Greater Cleveland Food Bank-sponsored free summer lunch program at the Lee Road and Noble Neighborhood branches this summer.

According to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, summer hunger is a reality for thousands of children across the country, primarily those living in low-income households or food deserts. What’s more, hunger is a proven obstacle to learning, and a lack of nutritious food options during the summer can negatively impact a student’s school performance once the school year starts up again in the fall.

In addition to offering dozens of free, nutritious meals, Heights Libraries will also promote literacy and STEM-related activities at the lunch program each day. This combination is intended to nourish the bodies and minds of local youth, who often witness a decline in literacy skills over the summer (a phenomenon known as “summer slide”).

Summer lunch at the Lee Road will be Monday-Friday, June 3-August 9, 12 – 1 p.m. Summer lunch at the Noble branch will be Tuesdays and Thursdays, June 4 – August 8, 1:30-2:30.

JUNE 27 - JULY 14
Book, Music & Lyrics by Jay Turvey & Paul Sportelli
Directed by Matthew Wright

A moving new musical about coming-of-age and coming-out.

It’s 1974 and Jules finds small-town existence stifling. He lives for listening to the latest records with his best friend Jill, but dreams of an exciting life in New York City. His father is trying his best at home with his only son. Jules encounters Francis, an openly gay, Bowie-loving young man, and Victor, an angry young man who seeks relief by pounding on the drums in his basement. All four young people experience a tumultuous New Year’s Eve that will change their lives forever.
