The Waning Age

by S. E. Grove

Determined to rescue her brother from the world's biggest company after they kidnapped him, Natalia finds her mission complicated by a serial predator, a boy who needs help, and the bounty on her head.

Scythe

by Neal Shusterman

In a world where disease has been eliminated, the only way to die is to be killed by professional reapers ('scythes'). Two teens must compete with each other to become a scythe and the one who wins must kill the one who doesn't.

Replica

by Lauren Oliver

Haven is a clandestine research facility where thousands of replicas, or human models, are born, raised, and observed. When a surprise attack is launched on Haven, two of its young experimental subjects—Lyra, or 24, and the boy known only as 72—manage to escape.

After the Red Rain

by Barry Lyga

In a future world of environmental collapse and mass poverty, a mysterious boy named Rose discovers he possesses inhuman powers that can irrevocably change the lives of everyone on the planet.

The Silenced

by James DeVita

Consigned to a prison-like Youth Training Facility because of her parents' political activities, Marena organizes a resistance movement to combat the restrictive policies of the ruling Zero Tolerance party.

Metaltown

by Kristen Simmons

The rules of Metaltown are simple: Work hard, keep your head down, and watch your back. But in a world of disease and war, tragedy and betrayal, allies and enemies, three teens must learn that challenging what they thought was true can change all the rules.
